THERE IS BIG PROBLEM IN HOME MANAGEMENT

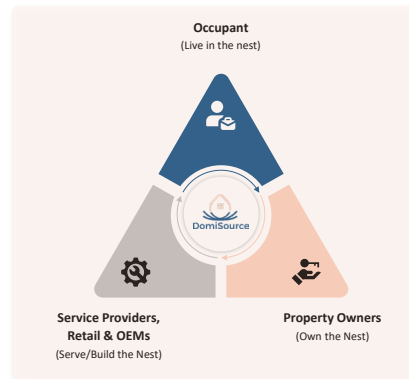

Despite the abundance of home-finding options, effectively managing the property after the transaction remains a significant hurdle. There's no comprehensive solution for post-transaction home management which leaves home occupants stuck in a time-consuming, inefficient cycle of tasks like endless calls, redundant forms, social media queries, and paperwork.

DOMISOURCE: EASING PAINS, DELIVERING SOLUTIONS

DomiSource streamlines home management by providing a unified solution that solves the pain areas – after the transaction. DomiSource can help you find movers and supplies, set up utilities and get insurance. Once you're settled, DomiSource provides information about your home's systems, appliances and can even connect you with the key people/resources you need, ensuring a hassle-free living experience. Through a seamless digital connection with homes, DomiSource enables easy information sharing with service providers. By providing valuable insights about customers' properties in their local area, DomiSource promotes revenue generation and encourages referrals.
